When/where are the results published ?

Results are published on the ROL Website on the Sunday of the Judging weekend. We aim to publish as early as possible – Sunday afternoon... but this is always subject to our volunteers – judges and admin team!

When results are published we post in the handlers social media group and on the front page of the ROL Website.